The Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC) has studied the risk factors and needs of Juvenile Court involved youth in this county and hereby publishes this Request for Proposals. The JCPC anticipates funds from the NC Department of Public Safety, Division of Adult Corrections and Juvenile Justice, Juvenile Community Programs section in the amount stated above to fund the program types specified below. Such programs will serve delinquent and at-risk youth for the state fiscal year 2017-2018 beginning on, or after, July 1, 2017. The use of these funds in this county requires a local match in the amount specified above.

The JCPC will consider proposals for the following needed programs:

Mentoring Services	Teen Court
Parent/Family Skill Building	Sex Offender Evaluation/Assessment Services
Restitution/Community Service	Interpersonal Skill Building	Structured Day Programs

Proposed program services should target the following risk factors for delinquency or repeat delinquency:

- o Youth are 12 years or older when first delinquent offense is alleged in a complaint
- o Youth report some substance abuse/mental health issues and/or need further assessing or treatment
- o Youth have moderate to serious behavior problems at school
- o Youth sometimes/regularly associates with negative/delinquent peers
- o Lack of Parental supervision

Programs should address the following concerns as reported in the Needs Assessments for adjudicated youth:

Peer Domain: Youth association with negative and/or delinquent peers.

Individual Domain: Youth are age 12 years or older at the time of the 1st delinquent offense alleged in a complaint. Youth reported having mental health issues that are being addressed and/or need further assessing or treatment

Family Domain: Parent/guardian/custodian supervision skills are reported as marginal; domestic discord in the home; and family members with a criminal history.

School Domain: Youth have moderate to serious school behavior problems as a result poor school attendance, excessive in-school and/or out of school suspensions.

Applicants are being sought that are able to address items below:

1. Program services compatible with research that are shown to be effective with juvenile offenders.
2. Program services are outcome-based.
3. The program has an evaluation component.
4. Program services detect gang participation and divert individual, if applicable.
